Important Message About Your Customer Proprietary Network Information (CPNI)

The protection of your account information has always been very important to us, so has the opportunity to provide you with excellent customer service.

In order to continue providing you with this level of service, we ask that you read the following information carefully, as the Federal Communication Commission (FCC) is imposing new rules on all telecommunications providers.

These rules will require that we obtain verification from you before we can provide you any information on your billing account. The following new rules will take affect this fall:

- Customers requesting information in person will be required to provide a photo ID
- Customers requesting information over the phone will be required to provide us with the account password (see below for establishing a password for your account). If a password is forgotten, the customer will have established a "verification question" and "answer" that will allow us to provide or reset the forgotten password.

Customers not able to provide the required verifications about, will only be allowed to receive their account information through the mail. The information may only be sent to the address on the customer account.

Also at this time we are encouraging our customers to make any name changes to their account that would make account access easier for those who need to inquire about the account. For example, adding the other spouse's name if the account is listed in only one spouse's name. For this process our company will waive the one time charge that is normally charged for name changes.
